

OBJECTIVES

Obtain a position which utilizes my unique skills and talents in visual design for print, video, and web that also allows for experience in which to learn and grow.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Substantial knowledge and experience in film production
- Extensive knowledge in audio recording and production, camerawork, lighting, editing, and in all technical and software based aspects of a production
- Experience creating and compressing video for web
- Skilled at producing high quality print and web ready graphics
- Excellent ability to collaborate with a group to find creative solutions to problems & challenges
- Ability to work quickly and efficiently

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

- The documentary film titled "Vanport: Oregon's Lost City" aired on the Oregon Public Broadcasting's prestigious Independent Lens
- The documentary film titled "Pura Vida, Pura Tierra" won 1st place at the DIVA Video Slam in Eugene, OR and 2nd place at the Sámara International Film Festival in Costa Rica

EXPERIENCE

September 2006-June 2007

- Oregon Daily Emerald // Online Editor
 - Created dynamic slideshows and multimedia content as well as updating and troubleshooting the newspaper's website. Served as a resource assisting videographer interns in shooting, directing, and editing

Summer 2006

- Global Media Adventures
 - Attended an intensive documentary film workshop in Costa Rica, learning the art of documentary film making from professionals working in the industry who have produced video for National Geographic, History Channel, and others

For art samples visit www.brianvanpeski.com

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Adobe Creative Suite (CS, CS2, CS3)
- Dreamweaver, html, xhtml, css
- Final Cut Pro, Motion, DVD Studio Pro
- Microsoft Office Suite
- Proficient in Mac and Windows platforms

EDUCATION

- University of Oregon 2004-2007
 - Bachelor of Arts degree in Multimedia Design
 - Minor in Business Administration